REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. Claims 10 - 22 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record does not teach or suggest, in combination with the claimed elements, a module electrical switching assembly with first and second housings detachably attachable to the printed circuit board, wherein the first housing including a first control rocker movable by pivoting between first and second positions, the first control rocker engaging for actuation a first switching element to provide a first operational mode and wherein the second housing including a second control rocker movable by pivoting between first and second positions, the second control rocker engaging for actuation the first switching element when the second housing covering the first switching element, to provide a second operational mode, which is different from the first operational mode. The prior art of Mayo et al. discloses a housing which is detachably mounted and hence can be changed, however, does not have first and second control rockers to provide two different operational modes:

3. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
4. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Marina Fishman whose telephone number is 571-272-1991. The examiner can normally be reached on 7-5 M-T.
